

Summary

This was an additional work party dedicated to the task of erecting the new notice board at the Wheatcroft entrance. Despite increasing rain later in the morning, the task was finished by lunch time and the smart new addition to the wood is now ready for use. The size and weight of the cabinet and posts certainly made transport to the wood difficult, and meant some heavy lifting during installation. Thanks to all who helped.